

Citymeals-on-Wheels Hosts 23rd Annual "Power Lunch For Women"

A veritable who's who from the worlds of business, media, entertainment, government, publishing and the arts filled Cipriani 42nd Street to honor Joan H. Tisch, Vice Chair, Citymeals-on-Wheels and Joan Weill, President Emeritus, Citymeals-on-Wheels at the Citymeals-on-Wheels 23rd Annual "Power Lunch for Women." This by-invitation-only benefit, emceed by Paula Zahn, raised $1.15 million to provide meals for New York's frail homebound aged. Kate Baldwin, star of the Broadway revival of Finian's Rainbow, performed.

Honored for their long-standing commitment to Citymeals, Joan Tisch and Joan Weill have helped shape the past, present, and future of Citymeals. As Vice Chair of the Citymeals' Board, Joan Tisch has stepped seamlessly into the shoes of the organization's late Chairman, her husband, Bob.

As the organization's former president, Joan Weill helped to create the nation's very first public-private partnership in the early 1990s when she led the effort to take Citymeals from its place as a New York City government program to a private non-profit organization.

One hundred percent of donations from the public to Citymeals goes toward the preparation and delivery of meals for homebound elderly. For more information, visit www.citymeals.org.

Donna Hanover and Fred Wilpon

Gael Greene, Jon Tisch and Lizzie Tisch

Jane Krakowski and Marcia Stein

Kathie Lee Gifford and Patricia Wexler

Marcia Stein and Paula Zahn

Tyne Daly and Fran Weissler

Diane Sawyer, Marcia Stein and Paula Zahn
(Photo Credit: Star Black)

Joan Weill and Jessica Bibliowicz
(Photo Credit: Star Black)

Jon Tisch, Fred Wilpon, John Pomerantz and Sandy Weill
(Photo Credit: Star Black)